

Trinity International Foundation Programme

Marino Institute of Education invites applications from suitably qualified persons for the following part-time teaching positions on the Trinity International Foundation Programme for the 2021/22 academic year:

English for Academic Purposes (10 hours per week)

Chemistry (4 hours per week)

Background

Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, Ireland's leading University, has been offering the International Foundation Programme since September 2016. The programme is delivered at the campus of Trinity's Associated College, Marino Institute of Education (MIE). The International Foundation Programme provides a pathway for strong international students who are not yet academically ready to directly enter undergraduate programmes in Trinity and who require additional support to meet the demands of studying academic subjects at University level through English as a second language. Students who successfully complete the International Foundation Programme and reach the required grades/ entry requirements will gain entry to the first year of their chosen undergraduate degree at Trinity or MIE.

Qualifications and Experience

- A relevant third level degree, ideally at Masters level or higher
- 3 to 5 years' experience in teaching, with a proven track record of achievement
- Evidence of engagement in innovative research/practice, including online/blended learning approaches

Teaching and Learning Responsibilities

- Engage in teaching duties as assigned by the Programme Manager
- Plan, teach, examine and invigilate annual and supplemental exams in assigned modules on the Trinity International Foundation Programme
- Supervise, mentor and advise students on academic progress and fulfil related duties

- Ensure quality assurance with respect to modules taught
- Engage in additional duties related to the needs of the Programme as they arise and in consultation with the Programme Manager
