POST DETAILS

Title:

Teacher of RE

Description:

Our successful school is expanding and an opportunity has arisen for a Teacher of RE to join our very strong Religious Education department from 1st September 2018. You will be creative, dedicated and able to teach across all key stages. Energy, enthusiasm and the desire to inspire a love of RE will shine through. You will be contributing to the work of a cohesive, innovative and professional team of specialists, as part of which you will be supported in working towards maintaining high standards of attainment and building the Catholic ethos within the department and across the school.

In addition, the post-holder will have every opportunity to progress due to the school's highly developed and personalised approach to training and professional development. This role is suitable for both experienced teachers and NQTs. We have a very supportive NQT + 1 programme. The school will also support the completion of the CCRS where necessary.
