Title:	Lecturing
Description:	Part-Time And Sessional Lecturers

As a result of new programme provision and increasing demand for our existing programmes, St. Nicholas Montessori College of Ireland is seeking to increase its core teaching faculty in all areas of early years and primary education from ages 3 to 12. We are seeking dedicated and passionate Montessori, early years and primary professionals who are aligned to our vision that all young people are instilled with a desire to learn which empowers them to be independent, confident and creative learners.

Subject disciplines include:

Montessori Pedagogy and Practice
Psychology, Sociology, Philosophy and History of Education
Primary Curriculum including Maths, English and Irish
Education Policy and Law
Professional Practice and Development (both Early Years and Primary)
Placement Supervision (Early Years settings and Primary)
Business & Management (focus on SMEs and start ups)

St. Nicholas Montessori College offers:

Attractive rates of pay
Dedicated teaching facilities in our Montessori Centre of Excellence in Dun Laoghaire
Access to our exemplar Montessori school with over 140 pupils
A passionate and dedicated team of education professionals
Flexible timetables which include daytime and evening/weekend teaching and positions available in both Dublin and Cork
State of the art e-learning facilities including Live online web conferencing and Moodle
We are seeking education professionals with at least a Master's degree in a relevant discipline and ideally with some or all of the following:
Montessori, early years or primary teacher education experience in a Higher Education setting in Ireland
Knowledge and experience of or qualified in Montessori education
Eligible for registration with the Teaching Council of Ireland
Experience with delivering and/or supporting online learning, the "flipped" classroom and other forms of flexible learning
Experience of quality assurance and/or programme validation, preferably with QQI (or HETAC)
A strong understanding of the Montessori Method and/or early years and primary national curricula
