POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

St Joseph's is designated by the Department of Education and Skills as a special school for students aged between 4 and 18 years of age who have been assessed as being in the Mild General Learning Disability range. Many of our students have additional needs such as ASD, ADHD and/or social/emotional or behavioural difficulties.

Experience of working in a special school setting is desirable. Experience of working with and understanding the needs of students with ASD is essential. Experience of working successfully with students who have emotional and/or challenging behaviour would be desirable.

The successful candidate must be able to work as part of a team. Knowledge of differentiating the Primary Curriculum to meet individual students ' needs is essential. Experience of using LÁMH, using positive behaviour strategies and crisis intervention /management training is desirable.

Initially this position will be for the most senior class in the school- 12 students aged between 16 and 18 years of age who are currently working on the Level 2 Junior Cycle Learning Programme.

Application by email only
Garda vetting will be required.
