POST DETAILS

Title:

Teacher

Description:

Primary Teacher

Blakestown and Mountview Neighbourhood Youth Project (NYP) is a specialised, community-based youth project working with vulnerable 9 – 13 year olds and their families. The project provides developmental programmes and supports; nurturing and empowering all who engage to reach their full potential.

NYP vacancy for Primary Teacher (1 year fixed term Career Break)

The successful candidate will work with children both in local schools and in the NYP Centre devising creative educational programmes to suit the needs of the children on the project. The programmes will focus on increasing educational opportunities and attainment for each child to support their long term retention in formal education.

The primary school teacher will:

- Be the primary contact between the local schools.
- Work with children individually and in groups to develop their literacy and numeracy skills
- Organise a range of engaging formal and informal educational supports for children.
- Participate with other staff members and with the child's family and school in implementing and a suitable programme of activities which will enhance the development of the child and their families.
- Assist other staff by providing training in developing skills in working directly with children to meet their educational needs in particular their literacy and numeracy skills.
- To work alongside other staff to organise individual and group programmes for the child and other members of their family. This could include working out of hours.
- Attend weekly team meetings and preparation or regular work reports.

The duties and responsibilities outlined above are not meant to be definitive or restrictive and may be modified to meet the changing needs of the organisation.

Secondments may be considered.

Department of Education salary scales apply.
