POST DETAILS

Title:
Magic of Music Facilitator Dublin area
Description:

THE MAGIC OF MUSIC

The Magic of Music is a highly successful music teaching programme based on all the strands of the New Primary Curriculum guidelines and it's going into it's seventh year of existence in over 100 schools nationwide. The programme material includes the theory of music, song singing, world music, rhythm groups, using percussion instruments, rock music, classical music, seasonal music, choirs, recorder/tin whistle tuition and much more.

There is one full time position and one part time position available in the Dublin region for the academic year 2010 – 2011 and the hours are 9am – 3.30pm with staff meetings at various times during the year outside these hours. The schools will be in various locations such as North and South County Dublin and the city centre. The person needs to be very energetic, dynamic, versatile, have great communication skills, perfect spoken English, willing to travel to different schools everyday, have a car, a computer, TV/DVD and printer, have some basic guitar skills, a class set of percussion instruments, extensive experience teaching children of a primary school age in the Irish education system (4-12yrs) and a strong musical background (a degree in the area is essential)

Successful candidates need to be available for training which commences on the 29th of August.
