POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

We are looking for teachers who are passionate about their subject, who are truly student-centred, who are hard-working and want to be part of a team that empowers students both in and out of the classroom.

Everyone is addressed by first name in our school, there is no school uniform and we promote inclusivity, innovation and restorative practice. We encourage CPD and support teachers to lead projects they are passionate about.

We have an open door policy, use a cross-curricular and team-teaching approach whenever possible and use a virtual learning environment (G Suite for Education) to communicate and share resources. We will develop our own resources along with the use of textbooks. We are committed to having high standards and high expectations in our learning and teaching.
