	Hansfield ETSS opened in 2014 under the patronage of Educate Together. It is still in growth mode and will have circa 820 students in 2021/2022 (Junior Cycle and Senior Cycle including 2 Special Classes) and is expected to grow to 1000 students by 2023.
	Applications for teaching positions that may arise in 2021/2022 are invited from those who are committed to the Educate Together ethos which emphasises four key principles – equality, co-education, learner centred and democratic principles.
	The final employment status and number of hours offered will depend on the final teacher allocation approved by the Department and the qualifications and subject combination of the successful candidate. The hours offered may include hours in one or more main subject and learning support.
Required Subject:	Business
Additional Subject:	French
