POST DETAILS

Title:

English teacher

Description:

We are recruiting an English Secondary teacher. Human Science classes and English as a second language could also be taught. But not mandatory.

Our school is an international school, the classes will mostly be given to English native students.

The program followed are the International Baccalaureate program and the European Schools curriculum. Our school is the first school in Belgium to offer these two programs and one of the first in the world.

Come make History with us!

Unique occasion to work in an international setting in Brussels. Lodging in a room/studio in the school's castle available to facilitate relocation.
