Title:

Chemistry Teacher (with potential Head of Science)

Description:

About Nord Anglia Education

Nord Anglia Education is the world's leading premium schools organisation, with campuses located across 30 countries in the Americas, Europe, China, Southeast Asia and the Middle East. Together, our 73 schools educate more than 67,000 students from kindergarten through to the end of secondary / high school. We are driven by one unifying philosophy: we are ambitious for our schools, students, teachers, staff and communities, and we inspire every child who attends a Nord Anglia Education school to achieve more than they ever imagined possible.

About our school

The British International School Bratislava is at the forefront of international education in Slovakia. Established in 1997 for students aged 2-18, our school is recognised for academic excellence leading to outstanding IB results and entry to top universities worldwide. Our facilities are designed to support learning, and include a wide range of performing arts and sports amenities to develop the whole child and foster a love of learning amongst our students. Our Schools

Each Nord Anglia Education school is unique in character and designed to meet the needs of its community. We are united by our philosophy, to be ambitious for our students, our people and our family of schools. We believe that being part of our family of 73 schools gives them a special advantage. Working together, we can achieve more than we can individually. Our schools have access to a wide range of resources and support to enhance their success. We also create unique opportunities to benefit our students and people, such as the Global Campus, Nord Anglia University, and our collaborations with The Juilliard School, MIT, UNICEF and King's College London.

About the role

We'll look to you to promote high expectations for our students, designing learning activities that are aligned to our school's curriculum and creating a learning culture where there are no limits to what can be achieved. You will foster an environment of respect within the classroom, facilitating learning through questioning and discussion. We encourage all our teachers to act as role models in promoting the core values, which have helped us to become first choice school for expatriate parents in Bratislava.

The successful candidate should have excellent communication, organisational and classroom management skills meet deadlines and work well under pressure. A genuine interest in the all-round welfare of students is essential as is being able to work independently and as a member of a team. As well as teaching, the colleague would be expected to develop assessments, contribute to schemes of work, keep detailed student records and take an active part in the development of the faculty. Ideas and initiatives are welcomed.

About you (see full Job description)

To be an outstanding classroom practitioner who develops students so that they become the best that they can be.

Able to adapt quickly to our fast-paced international environment,

You will need a relevant degree, a recognised teaching qualification in your subject Chemistry (PGCE / NQT) and a minimum of 2 years RELEVANT teaching experience.

Committed and creative, you will be reflective on your own teaching and student outcomes, seeking out and implementing new ideas and innovative practice to raise achievement.

Keen to collaborate and share your specialist expertise, you will be a fitting ambassador for the school. You will communicate with confidence across diverse audiences and situations, using your expertise to build strong relationships with parents and students.

Key tasks and responsibilities

- Ensure the effective teaching and management of classes, groups and individuals so that teaching objectives are met, momentum and challenge are maintained and the best use is made of teaching time.
- Use teaching methods, which will engage students and stimulate pupils' intellectual curiosity including the use of effective questioning, clear presentation and good use of resources.
- Have an excellent understanding of the use of technology to improve teaching and learning.
- Set high expectations for pupils' behaviour, establishing and maintaining a good standard of behaviour management through well-focused teaching and through positive and productive relationships in accordance with the rules and behaviour policy of the school.
- The post holder may be required to take responsibility for leading a curriculum area or operational aspect of the school.
- Lead a co-curricular activity.

You must also hold a European passport to comply with Slovak residency permit requirements.

Benefits

When you join a Nord Anglia Education school, you join a global community of more than 13,500 people working together to support our students' success. We offer you unsurpassed opportunities to innovate and develop best practice across our family, to access extensive professional development, and to gain exceptional experience and career development in our schools. At Nord Anglia, you will have opportunities to progress more, learn more, and collaborate more.

We offer career and development opportunities that come with being part of our global organisation. Nord Anglia University unites our team through a vibrant online platform which harnesses the collective expertise of their peers in an exchange of knowledge, ideas and best practice. We also provide extensive online and face-to-face professional development through Nord Anglia University to ensure that our teachers don't just maintain their skills, they develop at the cutting edge of educational thinking.

Our collaborations with The Juilliard School, MIT, UNICEF and King's College London, offers our teachers unrivalled access to leading experts in their fields. We also offer selected candidates from our staff worldwide an opportunity to earn their Executive Master's in International Education in an exclusive collaboration with King's College London.

Alongside great training and a competitive package, you'll enjoy the chance to live and work in A Fabulous European city.

As a Nord Anglia Education teacher, you enjoy the following benefits:

- ? A fast-paced, global experience so that you can progress on a global scale
- ? An enabling environment founded on creativity, challenge and collaboration
- ? A culture which is fair and consultative
- ? Unique opportunities to grow professionally and develop your career
