Additional Information:

NCH Special School is a one-teacher Hospital School that caters for Primary and Second-level pupils who are an in-patient in the hospital.

Our aim is to create a safe, fun, engaging environment in which the pupils can learn. The school often serves as a distraction from their hospital stay.

The successful candidate will not begin the maternity leave until mid-September but will be asked to come in and shadow the Principal prior to commencing the maternity leave. These will be paid substitution days. Full training will be provided.

Experience working in a hospital setting, or experience working with both Primary and Second Level pupils a plus, but not essential.
