POST DETAILS

Title:

Learning Support Teacher

Description:

The International School of Monaco is seeking to appoint an experienced and motivated Learning Support teacher (Secondary) with a commitment and passion for working with children who require intervention strategies for learning challenges.

The successful candidate will have the opportunity of working with a supportive and reflective team of teachers committed to setting high expectations for all students in a supportive and caring environment.

ISM and King's College School Wimbledon are now "sister schools", with day-to-day interaction taking place between staff and students at both schools and the sharing of outstanding practice in all areas.

ISM has high aspirations to become a centre of educational excellence in Europe and this unique collaboration gives ISM an opportunity to work alongside, and learn from, the very best.

ISM is an ambitious school that places a major emphasis on professional development and personal growth. High academic expectations are mirrored by established and proactive approaches to physical and mental wellbeing.

If you are suitably qualified, believe in the value of an international education and are looking for a school where the "focus is on students and their learning" we look forward to receiving your application.

The successful candidate will have:

- a passion for teaching diverse learners with a range of strengths and challenges
- a commitment to the ISM Values and Learning Principles
- strong knowledge of early literacy acquisition and development
- a range of multi-sensory and diverse teaching strategies using instructional supports
- collaborative planning and teaching
- confident specialist knowledge to identify, assess and support a range of learning difficulties and mild to moderate special education needs
- experience in demonstrating and developing growth mindset tendencies
- a genuine interest in personal growth

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate experience and skills in:

- planning and implementing individual learning plans
- communicating effectively with colleagues and parents
- supporting the social and emotional wellbeing of students

Qualifications:

- * a minimum of a Bachelor degree from a respected university
- * recognized teaching status
- * diploma or specialized trainings in Special Needs Education
- * previous experience in a Learning Support role is advantageous
