Description:

A Catholic School based in North London is holding interviews with Irish teachers over the coming weeks.

Engage Education is supporting this lovely Catholic faith-based school in shortlisting candidates that are available to begin work in September 2022. Engage Education has been helping Irish teachers get jobs for over 10 years and we have support at our core.

The subjects available to interview are:

English
Business Studies
Geography
Music
Science
ICT

This school which is based in Enfield has a rich heritage and tradition of providing education for boys in north London for over 100 years.

Ofsted visited this school in 2019 and judged the school to be 'good'. They said "Pupils enjoy school and value their education. Relationships between the pupils and the teachers are very positive".

Engage Education supported an Irish Teacher in getting a job at this school in September 2020 and he will still be teaching at this school this coming September.

The successful candidate will be a joining a team of dedicated and welcoming staff.

The salary for this position is based on the Outer London pay scale, which ranges from £29,915-£41,136. Experience in Ireland is recognised.

About you:

A qualified teacher that holds a teaching qualification and is registered or has a registration in process with the Irish Teaching Council.

Ability to relocate with support.

Benefits of working with Engage Education:

Relocation Bonus
Dedicated consultant in Ireland, and the UK

Free CPD
Employee Assistance Program
Connect with a large social network of teachers from Ireland, Canada, Australia, and the UK!

If this position is not for you or you would like more information on teaching in England, please reach out to Emma and Rachel based in the Dublin office, between them they have 12 years of experience including experience working as secondary school teachers.

Engage Education has offices in Leeds, Norwich, Brighton, London, and the surrounding area such as Essex, Kent and Buckinghamshire. Our ethos is finding teachers the right job.
