POST DETAILS

Title: General Secretary

Description: The General Secretary performs a vital role in ensuring the provision of support, advice, and information for voluntary secondary schools as well as negotiating on their behalf with relevant agencies and representing their interests where necessary. The General Secretary leads a highly motivated team providing support to voluntary secondary schools and negotiating on their behalf. The General Secretary is required to exercise managerial and leadership skills in developing the organisation to meet its strategic objectives and goals. The General Secretary must display excellent organisational and communication skills in dealing with staff, personnel in our schools and the partners in Irish education. The General Secretary is required to have excellent negotiating skills and a demonstrated capacity for initiative, strategic planning, and policy development. The General Secretary must have a strong commitment to faith-based education, the voluntary secondary school system, and a commitment to advance education in accordance with Catholic ethos and the ethos of schools within the Irish Schoolheads Association.
