POST DETAILS

Title:
Science Teacher
Description:
Science Teacher
April 2023 start date.

Science Secondary School Teacher - Hertfordshire, England.

Engage Education has a long standing reputation of supporting Irish teachers with their relocation journey. We are experts that offer CV presentation advice, interview preparation and much more.

We are shortlisting candidates on behalf of a well established school in the Hertfordshire area. The school provides education to both boys and girls and has recently undergone a refurbishment of the main school building. The school now boasts up to date facilities such as a modern Science lab and well being room.

About the area:

Hertfordshire is one of the Home Counties around London. It is well served with motorways and railways for access to London and surrounding areas. Luton airport is only a 30 minute drive away and Ryanair flies to this airport.

This position is open to newly qualified or experienced teachers who have completed a teaching degree at secondary level with a Science specialism.
This school is based on the 'Fringe London' Pay Scale which ranges from £29,344 - £40,083.

Requirements:

Registration with the Irish Teaching Council (Full or conditional)
Secondary Teaching Degree with a specialism in any Science subject
Sound subject and curriculum knowledge

Engage Education Ireland is based in Dublin. Our two experts Rachel and Emma work from here, assisting Irish and global teachers to relocate to England to teach in schools they love!

We work with schools across a high number of locations, including Leeds, Brighton and the Home Counties. If this above position does not match you preferences, please do reach out directly at ireland.office@engagepartners.co.uk
