Title:

Train to Teach in England for FREE with Engage Education

Description:

Engage Education has a two-phase Train to Teach programme which allows you to work, earn and learn all at the same time. The course is an alternative route to traditional initial teacher training, and offers a postgraduate-level qualification leading to Qualified Teacher Status (QTS), no tuition fees, and the opportunity to earn while you learn.

We have schools in the following areas that are seeking trainee teachers to join their schools. Stevenage, Hertfordshire, West Sussex, Essex, Rye. They are interested in supporting passionate candidates through the process of their training. We are delighted to be working with these schools that offer so much support to our trainees. Please note; you must be in a position to relocate to England for these positions.

What does the training entail?

This program will run over two phases. In your first phase, you will work full time in a local school as a member of Support Staff, while receiving online and in-person support from our Partnership and Development team to prepare you for your training programme. This first phase will include CPD by our Partnership and Development team.

Phase Two of the course gives you the essential knowledge and skills to excel in your teaching career. You will work as a teacher while studying for your PGCE and QTS assessment with the National Institute of Teaching and Education (NITE) at Coventry University. You will be paid in line with the national scale for unqualified teachers.

The modules included are:

Behaviour and Classroom Management
Curriculum Delivery and Assessment
Development of The Teachers' Standards
Evidence of practical teaching practice

Benefits:

Paid as a member of support staff in Phase 1, Unqualified teacher in Phase 2
Get paid to do your PGCE (NO FEES)
Gain certified Qualified Teacher Status (QTS)
Train in a school you love and continue working there once you've qualified
Exclusive professional and personal Engage benefits
