Additional Information: Immediate Start Available

The North Dublin Muslim National School is a vibrant and diverse school with a student body of over 400 pupils whose families originate from over 40 different countries. We welcome applications for the positions of Special Education Teacher (one maternity for the remainder of the academic year, one EAL for the remainder of the year). The successful candidates will join our school community at an exciting time, as our school continues to grow and develop at our new building on the Navan Road, Dublin 7.

Our Special Education Team works alongside colleagues to provide in-class and withdrawn support to pupils in curricular and other areas. Special Education Teachers also engage in school initiatives such as Aistear, Ready Set Go Maths and in-class graded reading.

We welcome applications from experienced and newly qualified teachers. The school is engaged in the Droichead process and has an established and supportive Professional Support Team. We offer considerable opportunities for ongoing professional development through both in-school mentoring and external training.

Please submit applications by email only. The requested teaching practice grades and referees can be included on your standard application form.
