About us:

Wilson's Hospital School is a Church of Ireland co-educational post-primary school with a Church of Ireland and Anglican ethos under the patronage of the of Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of Ireland. We are very proud of the broad curriculum we offer, our excellent academic results, our first-class facilities and the exceptional array of extra-curricular activities we provide.

We promote the education of the whole person regarding their spiritual, physical, intellectual, social, emotional aesthetic and moral development in harmony with the Christian faith as expressed in the Anglican tradition, which seeks to be characterised by inclusivity in approach, conveying certain values, being reflexive, being affirming of the student, and caring.

Wilson's has high expectations of staff and students. It is expected that our teachers:

- *use a cross-curricular and team-teaching approach whenever possible
- *use a virtual learning environment both to communicate, and to store and distribute our learning materials
- *encourage groupwork and active teaching methodologies
- *develop their own digital resources
- *are committed to using 21st Century Learning and Teaching Methodologies
- *are committed to fostering student voice, empowerment and wellbeing
- *are committed to the principles of equality, social justice, democracy, sustainability
- *are committed to using restorative practice to build relationships
- *will contribute to the school's extra and co-curricular programme.

Applying for a position with us indicates your support of our vision. Wilson's Hospital School is an equal opportunities employer.
