Information Note and Vacancies at December 2023

Hansfield ETSS is large school (over 850 students) under the patronage of Educate Together. It caters for students from a wide variety of cultural, socio-economic and educational backgrounds, including 18 students in three Special Classes (ASD). The school provides a lot of opportunity for creativity and innovation and there is a strong commitment to professional development for staff. As the school remains in growth mode there are good opportunities for career consolidation and promotion over time.

Vacancies that are currently available for 2023/2024 (from December 2023 to 3rd June 2024) are set out at the end of this Information Note.

Experience of the following will be an advantage:

- working on developing curriculum initiatives e.g. intercultural and language development programmes, theme-based learning not guided by a national framework
- working with students with different abilities and special and additional educational needs
- working with students for whom English is a second language
- working on or leading guidance initiatives and/or behaviour support initiatives.

Successful candidates will be required to commit to the following:

- exploring innovative teaching and learning, including collaborative practice, team teaching, experiential learning and using ICT as a primary teaching and learning tool
- mediating the curriculum through integrated and theme-based learning initiatives focussing on experiential and discovery-based learning
- promoting school wide ethical education, ethical practice and development education
- supporting positive behaviour focussing on the principles of restorative practice
- building the school ethos and culture as framed by the Patron Body - Educate Together.

Applicants should visit the school website www.hansfieldsecondary.ie. Applicants are also advised to visit the Educate Together website (www.educatetogether.ie) and read the Educate Together Charter, A Blueprint for Educate Together Second-Level Schools and other guidance documents on ethos development to become familiar with the school expectation, ethos and priorities.

Applications should submit a CV by email to recruitment@hetss.ie on or before Monday 11th December 2023.

Hansfield ETSS is an equal opportunities employer. In most instances, an applicant must be registered with the Teaching Council to be appointed to a teaching position in a second level school, however in some instances this is not required. All appointments are subject to approval by the Board of Management and Department of Education.
