POST DETAILS

Title:

Secondary maths teacher

Description:

Maths Teacher:

The post will involve teaching maths to second level students.

Job description:

- Planning, teaching and class management.
- Monitoring, assessment, recording and reporting.
- Curriculum development.
- Pastoral care.
- Taking part in extra curricular activities such as cross curricular weeks and sports days.
- Continued professional development.

Salary and Package:

The salaries at school are higher than the Spanish pay scales. The pay increases when there is an increase announced across Spain. There are incentives such as coordinator positions for looking after the library, a pastoral role, extra support classes or coordinating a subject area.

Our package includes:

- Salary higher than the Spanish national guidelines.
- Permanent contract.
- Three course school lunch each day.
- National health insurance, and health insurance for work related issues.
- Administrative support with the legal documentation such as paperwork related to visa application, if required, for becoming a resident in Spain, registering with your local town hall and doctor, opening a bank account.
- Support and advice on finding accommodation.

Our School Day :

All teachers start at 8:45 and finish at 16:15. On Mondays we have staff meetings until 17:00.

Person Specification:

We are looking for a qualified, experienced and enthusiastic teacher to join our team. Someone who wants to be part of a supportive team with a child centred approach to teaching and learning. Experience teaching at IBDP and knowledge of learning platforms such as Firefly, Managebac and management systems such as ISAMS is an advantage but not essential. Legal permission to work in Spain is desirable.

Application Process:

Please send CV and covering letter with contact details of one referee to our Head Teacher at:

hr@theacademyschool.com

Shortlisted candidates will have a face-to-face or online interview.
