POST DETAILS

Panel of Applicants:

An internal panel of suitable applicants may be set up to fill vacancies which may occur within a specific time period (four months for teacher posts and the duration of the school year for SNA posts) from the date on which the Board approves the successful candidate.

Additional Information:

Crannóg Nua Special School provides on-site education to the young people committed under a special care order to the Crannóg Nua Special Care Unit. The school is located on a campus with a residential centre where students are housed. Students are aged between ten and eighteen years. The school provides a broad spectrum of educational curricula and programmes, catering for Primary, Post Primary and QQI through the 10 level National Framework of Qualifications. The school is under the patronage of the Dublin and Dún Laoghaire Education and Training Board.

Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board is a statutory local education authority operating under the terms of the Education and Training Boards Act 2013. The Board provides mainstream educational programmes to schools and colleges as well as providing a wide range of adult and community programmes. The Board's educational remit extends from Balbriggan in the north of the county to Lucan in the west, to Dun Laoghaire in the south.
