POST DETAILS

Title:

Teacher of History (immediate start)

Description:

Teacher of History

URGENT

The international section (EIES) of the Lycée Edward Steichen, Clervaux (LESC), Luxembourg, is looking for a highly motivated and inspiring History teacher to join our expanding History teaching team.

Requirements: Suitable candidates...

- ...must be able to teach History (in English) to secondary school students (essential)
- ...must have fully qualified teacher status from an EU member state or the UK (essential)
- ...must have a university degree in History (or related subject) to Masters or PGCE level (essential)
- ...must have a minimum of 60 months full-time teaching experience (essential)
- ...must also be able to speak either German or French at B1/B2 level (essential)
- ...should ideally have the right to live and work in Europe (desired, but not essential)

LESC is a publicly funded school located in the historical town of Clervaux, in the North of Luxembourg. École Internationale Edward Steichen (EIES), as a branch of LESC, is an Accredited European School and follows the European Schools' curriculum. We aim to educate our students for the challenges of the 21st century by developing our pupils, both academically and non-academically, into well-rounded critical thinkers and well-educated lifelong learners.

If you want to join a growing school and contribute to our vision of creating a school that prepares young people for the challenges of the 21st century, we are keen to hear from you.

For further information about LESC/EIES visit: www.lesc.lu
