Additional Information:

St. Peter's Community School is a progressive and growing co-educational school in Passage West, Co. Cork.

We are seeking applicants who are passionate about their subject, are student-centered, hard-working and who want to be part of a team that empowers students both in and out of the classroom.

Experience teaching both French and Gaeilge at both Junior & Senior level would be advantageous

Our teachers must also have the ability to engage and inspire very academic and high achieving students as high quality teaching and learning is at the centre of what we do.

The ability to contribute to extra-curricular activities will be an advantage.

Registration with the Teaching Council and a Garda Vetting Disclosure will be required for appointment

All appointments are subject to the sanction and approval of the Department of Education and Skills and the post not being required for the redeployment process

Shortlisting may apply and only shortlisted candidates will be contacted

Required Subjects: French
