Scoil Mochua is special school catering for students who have a physical disability and mild learning disability aged 3 - 18 years. We aim to provide our pupils with an inclusive and fulfilling education from early childhood to school leaving age.

We deliver an early education program in our pre-school, the primary curriculum, Junior Cycle Level 1 and 2 and the new Senior Cycle across our 11 classes. We believe each student has the potential to excel and prosper and we are looking for teachers to join our dedicated staff team.

Applicants training, backgrounds and preferences will be considered to fit each candidate into the class level best suited for them.

Experience in a special education setting is preferable but not essential, lots of in-school training is offered to all our staff.
