Additional Information:

Harold's Cross National School is a vertical, co-educational primary school with a double stream from junior infants to sixth class. We are looking for motivated, enthusiastic, child-centered teachers to join our team. We provide a wonderful work environment where collaboration, support and teamwork are at the forefront of what we are all about. We aim to provide the best learning experiences for our students and help them to achieve their full potential. We are delighted to be a Droichead school.

We have two fixed-term positions and three maternity/specific purpose positions to fill for the coming school year. The three maternity/specific purpose positions are likely to span the full school year.

The positions on offer are both in mainstream and SET.
