Eolas Breise:

An internal panel of suitable applicants may be set up to fill vacancies which may occur within a specific time period (four months for teacher posts and the duration of the school year for SNA posts) from the date on which the Board approves the successful candidate.

Additional Information:

DDLETB invites applications from suitably qualified persons for the post of Special Education Teacher in Lucan Community Special School under a fixed term contract of employment to take effect from the 3rd November 2025.

Lucan Community Special School (LCSS) is a Community Special School that will provide for the needs of students with autism and complex learning needs. It will cater for students who require the support of a special school, from the beginning of primary school to eighteen years of age. This new developing school will be located in Lucan, west county Dublin. The school will open in October 2025 with the Principal, an Administrative Deputy Principal and teaching staff to cater for a number of special classes. As Lucan CSS is a developing school, the long-term enrolment of children in the school is expected to grow from 2025 onwards. Interviews will be held online on Friday 31st October.
