POST DETAILS

Title:
Panel of Qualified Investigative and Research Experts

Description:
The Ombudsman for Children's Office (OCO) is seeking to establish a Panel of Qualified Investigative and Research Experts to support its statutory functions.

The Panel will provide access to a pool of experts who can be engaged on an as-needed basis to contribute to investigations, research projects, policy papers, and the preparation of briefing materials.

Panel members will be expected to work to high professional standards, demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills, and operate with integrity, impartiality, and a clear child-rights focus.

Applicants can apply for research services and/or investigative services depending on qualifications and experience.

Applications are open until the 15th of May 2026
