Teacher Recruitment 2026/2027
Information Note

Hansfield ETSS is large secondary school in Dublin 15 under the patronage of Educate Together. It caters for over 850 students from a wide variety of cultural, socio-economic and educational backgrounds, including 18 students in our three Autism Classes (AS).

As a large school it provides a lot of opportunity for creativity and innovation. New subjects such as PE and Computer Science have been introduced at Senior Cycle. One-to-one Devices were introduced for first years in September 2023 and there is a strong commitment to professional development for staff with good opportunities for career consolidation and promotion over time.

Vacancies that arise in 2026/2027 are set out at the end of this Information Note. Some are linked to the new positions and others to staff secondments, career break, job sharing. The final employment status and number of hours offered will depend on the final teacher allocation approved by the Department of Education & Youth and the qualifications and subject combination of the successful candidate.

-Experience of the following will be an advantage:

- working on developing curriculum initiatives.
- working with students with different abilities and additional educational needs (AEN).
- working with students for whom English is a second language.
- working on or leading guidance initiatives and/or behaviour support initiatives.

-Successful candidates will be required to commit to the following:

- exploring innovative teaching and learning, including collaborative practice, team teaching, experiential learning and using ICT as a primary teaching and learning tool
- collaborating with colleagues for subject planning.
- mediating the curriculum through integrated and theme-based learning initiatives focussing on experiential and discovery-based learning
- promoting school wide ethical education, ethical practice and development education
- supporting positive behaviour focussing on the principles of restorative practice

- building the school ethos and culture as framed by the Patron Body

Applicants should visit the school website www.hansfieldsecondary.ie and the school social media accounts. Applicants are also advised to visit the Educate Together website (www.educatetogether.ie) and read the guidance documents for second level school including ethos development to become familiar with the school expectation, ethos and priorities.

- Applications should be made on the Hansfield ETSS Application Form. The form is available on the school website. If applying for more than one position one application form will be sufficient but the subjects being applied for and their codes must be clearly listed in the relevant section of the application form.
- All Sections and Questions on the application form should be addressed. If a question is not relevant to you insert 'Not Applicable'. Information other than the completed application form should not be provided.
- Contact details for two referees must be provided.
- Guidance on the word count should be observed.
- Applications should be submitted by email to recruitment@hetss.ie
- Hansfield ETSS is an equal opportunities employer. Canvassing will disqualify. Shortlisting will apply. Shortlisted applicants will be interviewed as soon as possible after the closing date for application. Applicants not shortlisted for interview should be advised by email within 6 weeks of the closing date for application. If you do not receive an email, please feel welcome to email recruitment@hetss.ie for clarification, if you wish.
- Information provided by you (Application Form and References) will be handled and stored in accordance with current Data Protection legislation. Except for successful candidates, all records from the recruitment process will be permanently destroyed once the recruitment process is completed.
- In most instances, an applicant must be registered with the Teaching Council to work in a second level/secondary school in order to be appointed to a teaching position. Appointments are subject to approval by the Board of Management approval and Department of Education.

Should you have any questions please contact us.
