POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

St. Laurence O'Toole's Specialist School caters for young people between the ages of 12 and 16 who are at risk. Students come from backgrounds of severe social marginalisation and their behaviours can reflect the adverse life experiences they have had. Students undertake the Junior Cycle curriculum.

We are looking for an SNA to join our team. Experience working with an at-risk client group is desirable but not essential. Applications will be considered from any one with a genuine interest in working with our students.

The principal welcomes phone calls of enquiry.
