POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

Abacas Special School, Kilnamanagh, is inviting applications for 2 x Fixed Term Teaching Posts commencing in the upcoming school year (26/27). These are exceptional teaching posts above our class allocation. This is a great opportunity to join a highly supportive and dedicated school community committed to meeting the needs of children and young people with autism and complex needs.

Our school caters for students aged 4–18 years and provides a nurturing, child-centred learning environment where communication, regulation, independence and community participation are central to the curriculum.

The school currently comprises:

7 Teachers
 25 SNAs
 Board certified Behaviour Analyst
 Administrative Principal and Deputy Principal

Abacas Special School has strong links within the Kilnamanagh community, and students regularly access the local community as part of their educational programme and life skills development.

These posts are fixed term initially and are likely to continue.

The Ideal Candidate Will:

Be registered with the Teaching Council
 Work effectively as part of a multidisciplinary team

Demonstrate initiative, flexibility and professionalism
Adopt a calm, low-arousal approach to supporting students
Follow and implement Positive Behaviour Support Plans
Lead and collaborate with experienced and highly trained SNAs
Create engaging, inclusive and supportive learning environments
Show commitment to meeting the complex educational and care needs of students with autism

Experience in a special school setting is a distinct advantage.

Shortlisting will apply.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted

Applicants must hold current Teaching Council registration.
