Additional Information:

This is a new route that we are setting up to start in Churchtown/Milltown area to our school in Inchicore each morning and back in the afternoons. The amount of children on the route is still to be decided. School starts at 850am and finishes at 230pm.

We are seeking caring and reliable individuals to join our team in supporting children travelling to and from school daily. Candidates should be resilient, patient and caring. Experience of working with children with complex needs and behaviours of concern is desirable. The bus escort is responsible for dealing with children's safety while on the bus and in ensuring a safe handover to school staff.

Please include three referees and their contact details. Bus escorts are subject to garda vetting requirements and completion of the Tusla elearning Children First course.
