Additional Information:

Portmarnock Community School invites applications for the position of Special Needs Assistant (SNA).

This is a fixed-term maternity leave cover position commencing on or about 1 September 2026. The contract will terminate on the return of the employee from maternity leave.

The successful candidate will support students with additional educational needs in accessing and participating fully in school life and will work collaboratively with teachers, the Additional Educational Needs (AEN) team, school leadership and parents to promote inclusion and student wellbeing. Experience of supporting students with autism and/or working in an ASD class setting would be desirable.

Applicants must meet the Department of Education requirements for appointment as a Special Needs Assistant.

Shortlisting may apply. Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.

Please forward a letter of application, Curriculum Vitae and copies of relevant qualifications.

This appointment is subject to the sanction and approval of the Department of Education, satisfactory Garda Vetting and the position not being required for redeployment purposes.

Portmarnock Community School is an equal opportunities employer.

Applications by email only.
