Additional Information:

Shellybanks Educate Together National School is a warm, welcoming school in the heart of Sandymount Village. We're looking for kind, dedicated, and collaborative teachers to join our team in both mainstream and a SET (Special Education Teacher) role. We foster a supportive, inclusive environment rooted in the Educate Together ethos of equality, child-centered learning, and respect for all. We value the voice, experience, and contribution of every staff member. We take a collaborative approach to teaching and learning, with professional support and teamwork. Our school opened in 2014 and currently has classes from Junior Infants to Sixth Class, including three autism classes. We're excited to be moving into our brand-new, purpose-built school building in the coming weeks. Located in Sandymount Village, we benefit from excellent public transport links and a vibrant local community. We'd love to hear from teachers who share our ethos and passion for inclusive education.
