Additional Information:

St Joseph's NS in Halverstown (R56W950) is now recruiting for three teaching positions to start on 27th of August. Please apply by email to halverstownnsrecruitment@gmail.com.

The positions are as follows:

- 1 Fixed Term position covering Career Break for the full school year.
- 1 Substitute Position covering Carers Leave for the full school year.
- 1 Substitute Position covering Maternity Leave from 27th of August to the 4th of June 2027.

The initial duties of these three positions are as follows. One of these positions will be allocated in a mainstream class and two of the positions will be in mainstream SET roles. St Joseph's NS is a small, rural school just outside Kilcullen. We are an inclusive school with three mainstream classes, two autism classes and two SET teachers.

We look forward to welcoming three motivated, flexible and enthusiastic teachers to our team for the coming year.

Please be advised that the interviews for these positions are scheduled for Thursday the 9th of July. Please take note of this date as your notice of interview. Only candidates that are being called for interview will be contacted and the time for interview will be arranged on Wednesday 8th of July after the closing date for applications at 12pm. Thank you.
