ABOUT THRESHOLD TRAINING NETWORK

Despite having the word Threshold in our name we are not associated with the Housing Organisation!
Instead we are an organisation based on the main road in Tallaght Village that offers support for MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING through training and education.

Our education programmes, are on the national framework of qualifications at QQI level 3 and 4. We also run a wellbeing programme comprised of wellbeing initiatives such as wellbeing workshops in addition to wellness recovery coaching at the centre. We are recognized by Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board (DDLETB), our main funder, as a Specialist Training Provider for our education programmes. TTN also receives grant support from the HSE for our wellbeing activities.

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE ROLE

The overall purpose of the Support Trainer Role (One year Temporary Contract) is to support learners undertaking the education programmes, at QQI level 3 and 4.

The main responsibilities include

Plan, organize and facilitate two QQI modules, Level 3 and Level 4 - Career Preparation in Semester 1, runs September 2026 to end of February 2027

Plan, organize and facilitate two QQI modules, Level 3 and Level 4 - Work Experience in Semester 2, runs March 2026 to end of July 2027

Ensure that requirements set out by funding providers, DDLETB, are met on training content, delivery, reporting and feedback records.

Co-ordinate learners portfolio's for the training modules so that they are completed to the standard required for certification

The Support Trainer is part of the small team that ensures the smooth running of all services in the Centre nurturing a philosophy of wellness recovery to empower those attending all its services to embrace the idea of personal change.
