Additional Information:

St. Thomas' Senior National School is a welcoming DEIS Plus school serving approximately 330 pupils in the heart of Tallaght. Our school is built on a culture of collaboration, inclusion and high expectations, with a strong commitment to nurture-based, trauma-informed practice and the wellbeing of every child.

As the base school for the Tallaght Supply Panel, St. Thomas' SNS offers teachers the opportunity to become part of a supportive and experienced staff team while gaining valuable teaching experience across a number of neighbouring primary schools. This unique role provides the security and sense of belonging of a home school, combined with the professional growth that comes from working in a variety of educational settings.

Working across the supply panel allows teachers to:

- 1) Develop experience in a range of school environments, teaching contexts and year levels.
- 2) Build confidence, adaptability and classroom management skills.
- 3) Work alongside experienced and supportive leadership teams across the Tallaght area.
- 4) Expand professional networks and enhance future career opportunities.
- 5) Make a meaningful difference to pupils by ensuring continuity of high-quality teaching across local schools.

Whether you are an experienced teacher or newly qualified, the Tallaght Supply Panel offers an excellent opportunity to broaden your experience while being supported by a collaborative school community committed to excellence, wellbeing and inclusive education.

It is a requirement to hold a valid Statutory Declaration and to complete the Form of Undertaking for this position upon offer of employment.
