POST DETAILS

Title:
Teach in New Zealand or Australia – Primary, Secondary & Leadership Roles

Description:
Ready to take your teaching career overseas?

Éire Ed is recruiting qualified primary and secondary teachers for opportunities across New Zealand and Australia, starting in January 2027. Head of Faculty and Senior Leadership positions are also available.

We connect Irish-trained teachers with quality schools in locations including Sydney, Melbourne, Perth, Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch.

Eligible teachers moving to New Zealand may access a relocation grant of up to NZD $10,000 and apply through the Straight to Residence visa pathway.

You'll also join a growing community of Irish teachers who have already relocated, giving you a network as you settle into your new school, home and social life.

Why New Zealand or Australia?

Develop your career while enjoying beaches, outdoor adventures, sport and travel. Whether you're seeking your next classroom role or a step into leadership, we'll help you find a school and location that suit your professional goals and lifestyle.

What's on Offer?

Permanent and fixed-term roles starting in January 2027.
Classroom teaching and leadership opportunities.
Competitive salaries and opportunities for professional development.
Relocation assistance where available
Guidance on registration, visa requirements and relocation.
A welcoming community of Irish and international teachers.

No recruitment fees for teachers.
Support Throughout Your Move

From your first conversation with us, Éire Ed can assist with school introductions, interview preparation, teacher registration, documentation, visa guidance and relocation planning.

Our support continues after you secure your position, helping you prepare for your move and settle into life overseas.

How to Apply

Please email an up-to-date CV, outlining your teaching subjects or leadership experience, preferred locations and availability for a January 2027 start.

Join the Éire Ed community and discover where your teaching career could take you.
