POST DETAILS

Title:
Teach in the UAE: Secondary School Roles, Tax-Free Package, Interviews in Dublin

Description:
Éire Ed is your passport to teaching abroad, and we are currently seeking passionate and experienced secondary teachers to join well-funded, forward-thinking schools in the United Arab Emirates from August 2027.

This is an exceptional opportunity to experience life in one of the world's most exciting and welcoming countries, while building your career in schools that are raising standards and growing their international teaching teams at scale.

Secondary Education (Grades 7–11):
- Mathematics
- English
- Science
- ICT
- Design Technology
- Art
- Music
- Guidance Counsellor

Plus more...

The Role:
Teach your specialist subject to motivated students in schools that are expanding their international pathways, including Cambridge IGCSE. Bring your Irish classroom experience, help build something new and make sure every student makes real progress.

Typical Conditions:
- No more than 22 lessons a week
- Classes of under 24 students
- Monday to Friday working week
- Excellent facilities, including science and IT labs, smartboards, sports facilities and a laptop for every teacher

What's on Offer:
- Tax-free monthly salary that rises with your experience
- Monthly housing allowance, with an advance on arrival
- Flight out, visa, Emirates ID and serviced accommodation on arrival, all paid for
- Annual flight allowance
- Comprehensive health insurance

- Education allowance towards your children’s schooling
- Annual performance bonus and end-of-service gratuity
- Packages vary by school. Full details are shared during your screening call.

What we’re looking for:
- At least two years’ teaching experience
- Full Teaching Council registration, with Droichead completed
- Excellent subject knowledge
- A grounded, energetic teacher who builds strong relationships with students

Interviews:
Face-to-face interviews in Dublin from 7–13 December 2026, with further interviews in January 2027. After-school and weekend slots are available, so you don’t miss a day of teaching. Places are limited, so apply early.

Step out of your comfort zone, take the leap, and experience life in the sunshine with a tax-free salary and a career-defining opportunity.

How to Apply:
Email your CV to eanna.corry@eireed.com and tell us which role you’re interested in. You can also apply using the button on this page. Apply by Friday 4 December 2026 to secure a December interview slot. Applications after this date will be considered for January interviews.

Next, we’ll arrange a short, informal video call to talk through the roles and answer your questions. Shortlisted candidates will then be invited to a face-to-face interview in Dublin. If after-school or weekend slots suit you best, just let us know when you apply.

Éire Ed is managing this recruitment on behalf of our partner schools. Your application is treated in confidence, and your details are only shared with a school with your permission. You can ask us to remove your details at any time. Every application is assessed on qualifications, experience and suitability for the role.
